Small Mammals Collected in the Udzungwa Mountains National Park, Tanzania

Author(s)
William T. Stanley, Alfeo M. Nikundiwe, Fatina A. Mturi, PhilipM. Kihaule, and Patricia D. Moehlman

Abstract
Small mammals were sampled in the Udzungwa Mountains National Park, Tanzania, during 1995 and 1996. Twenty-four species, representing 16 genera were recorded for three orders: Insectivora, Chiroptera and Rodentia. Identifications and natural history information are presented for this poorly known fauna from a unique Eastern Arc Mountains habitat.